THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Railroad Chapel is a Church whose government is by Presbyters (Elders). These officers, chosen by the people, are charged with the watch, and care, and government of the Church. They are of two classes—those who rule and those who both rule and teach. The former are called ruling elders; the latter, pastors or ministers.

THE SESSION.—"The Church Session consists of the pastor, or pastors, and ruling elders of a particular congregation."

Duties: To receive members into the Church; to admonish and rebuke, to suspend or exclude, in the exercise of a wise and tender discipline; to "support the weak"; and, in general, to take loving and watchful heed "to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made them overseers."

The following are the names of the gentlemen who comprise the Session which has charge of the spiritual interests of the Railroad Chapel, as well as those of the First Presbyterian Church, of Chicago.

OUR FINANCES.

This Church is free, none of the seats being rented. The yearly cost of carrying on the work is about seven thousand dollars. The following are God's directions as to how Christians should give:

"Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him."—1 Cor. 16:2.

"Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver."—2 Cor. 9:7.

"Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase."—Prov. 11:2-5.

"Freely ye have received, freely give."—Matt. 10:8.

"Give and it shall be given unto you, good measure pressed down and shaken together, and running over shall men give unto you."—Luke, 6:38.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The Rev. BRAINERD KENT, who founded the Sunday School of the Railroad Chapel in a Lake Shore Railway passenger car, on Sunday, May 10, 1857, is still living, but so venerable and feeble as to be unable to leave his residence. He was with the School from the beginning to November, 1884, when his strength failed him. He is respected and loved by thousands in Chicago.

The first Chapel building stood on a lot given by the Railroad Company, on Griswold street, south of Van Buren, and was dedicated on the 4th of July, 1858, a little more than a year after the School was born. This building accommodated about three hundred scholars, and was soon uncomfortably crowded. Then a second building, of brick, was erected on Griswold street, seating fully one thousand persons, and costing $21,000. It was dedicated on March 27, 1864, and was used until the great fire of October 9, 1871, when it, and all of its furniture, was destroyed.

For nearly a year and a half, after the fire, the Railroad Chapel Congregation and Sabbath School met in the Jewish Synagogue, corner of Wabash Avenue and Peck Court, and its attendance constantly increased. In the meantime, the First Presbyterian Church had purchased a lot on State street, just south of Fourteenth, for $24,000, and erected a fine, large, brick building for the Chapel's use, which, with its furniture and large pipe organ, cost about $46,000 more.

The Rev. DONALD FLETCHER was the first pastor in the new building and continued his work for a year or more. Then the Rev. Dr. MITCHELL, the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, preached at the Chapel on Sunday evenings, for nearly three years. During this time, little pastoral work was done among the Chapel congregation, and there was a painful falling off, in all the departments of its work.

On October 1, 1880, Mr. CHARLES M. MORTON was called to the pastorate of the Chapel, and still continues this relation. His first sermon was preached to about thirty people, and his first Prayer Meeting was attended by seven men, women and children. He began to spend his time in the homes of the community, and it was not long before the result of his work began to be apparent. A fine class of people came to his assistance, and the blessing of God was poured out upon the congregation in large measure. The five Communion Services of the last year (from January, 1886, to January, 1887) have added one hundred and forty-one valuable members to this Church.

Mr. MORTON has been highly favored with competent and willing helpers, of both sexes, and their name is legion, for they are many. Probably all of them would unite in giving place to Mr. CHARLES S. LEE, who from the beginning of Mr. MORTON's pastorate, has given most valuable time and services to this work. He has his reward in the affections of the people, who, from the oldest man to the youngest child, most heartily appreciate the encouragement and comfort they have received from Mr. LEE.

To one and all who have labored so faithfully here, the thanks of the Church are due. The record of their work and their reward are in heaven.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Every person desiring to unite with the membership of this Church must give creditable evidence of regeneration and devotion to the service of the Lord Jesus Christ, and should be able to accept heartily the following doctrines of the confession of faith.

THE DOCTRINES OF OUR CONFESSION OF FAITH.

I. ONE GOD; infinite, eternal and unchangeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth, subsisting in mysterious and eternal trinity—Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

II. ONE WORD; the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, all given by inspiration of God, and our only infallible rule of faith and practice.

III. ONE CONDEMNATION; there being no difference, for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God, because the carnal mind is enmity against God.

IV. ONE SAVIOUR; the Lord Jesus Christ, God manifest in the flesh, the power unto salvation from sin and endless death, by atoning expiatory sacrifice, through faith.

V. ONE ATONEMENT FOR SIN; made by Jesus Christ in his obedience unto death, sufficient unto all, adapted to all, taking every legal obstacle out of the way of all, and on these grounds to be offered to all.

VI. ONE SPIRIT; God, the Holy Ghost, through whose sovereign agency in regeneration, the soul, dead in sin, is made alive in Christ, and through whose sovereign agency in sanctification, the soul is changed more and more into the divine image, from glory to glory.

VII. ONE LIFE; the life hid with Christ in God—the life eternal; begun when a sinner believes, and assured forever thereafter by the effectual and sovereign grace of God; so that once given this eternal life, no believer shall ever perish.

VIII. ONE CHURCH; which is Christ's body, all the members of which God hath from the beginning chosen to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the Truth.

IX. TWO SACRAMENTS; and only two, as ordained by Christ—Baptism and the Lord's Supper. Baptism being a Sacrament wherein we have "sign and seal of ingrafting into Christ, of remission of sins by His blood, and regeneration by His Spirit"; and the Lord's Supper being a Sacrament wherein "the Lord's death is shown forth," and the worthy receivers are, by faith, "made partakers of His body and blood, to their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace."

X. ONE JUDGMENT; when the dead, small and great, shall stand before God, and every man shall be judged according to his works; and the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous unto life eternal.

FORM FOR RECEIVING NEW MEMBERS.

I.—OF BAPTISED PERSONS ADMITTED TO FULL COMMUNION.

The following persons born within the pale of the visible Church, and dedicated to God in baptism, having been examined as to their knowledge and Christian experience, and approved by the Session, will now present themselves, as their names are called, publicly to confirm their baptismal obligations.

[The candidates, having presented themselves, are addressed by the pastor in the following words:]

BELOVED:—Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ. This is the word of faith which we preach: “If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.”

By virtue of your connection with the visible Church, you received the sacrament of baptism in infancy, according to Scriptural warrant. You have been instructed in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. You have been taught to abhor sin, to fear God, and obey the Lord Jesus Christ.

Humbly trusting that you have been chosen of God to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth, and regarding it to be your duty and privilege to come to the Lord's Supper, do you now, with your whole heart, ratify the vows of your baptism that bind you to consecrate yourselves to God, and to live godly and obedient lives?

[Here each shall audibly answer:]

I do.

We thankfully recognize the seal of God thus set to His promise, which is unto us and to our children. We rejoice in your obedience to our common Master, who said to His disciples, "This do in remembrance of me." Henceforth, then, let your conversation be as becometh the Gospel of Christ; and may you adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

II.—OF UNBAPTISED PERSONS ADMITTED TO CHURCH MEMBERSHIP ON PROFESSION OF THEIR FAITH.

The following persons, having given satisfaction with respect to their knowledge and Christian experience, and having been received into the Church by the Session, are now to make a public profession of their faith, and thereupon to be baptised.

[Here the candidates will come forward, as their names are called, and be addressed as follows:]

BELOVED IN THE LORD:—In accordance with our Saviour's words, "Whosoever shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven," you here and now, confessing and repenting of your sins, and trusting that they are pardoned solely through the atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ our Lord, do publicly profess your faith in Jesus Christ and your acceptance of Him as your Saviour and King, whose life is your supreme example, whose death is your only ground of hope, whose commandment is your supreme law, and whose perpetual and prevailing intercession is your evermore blessed assurance of salvation to the uttermost.

Henceforth avoiding that worldly conformity which is forbidden in the Scriptures, and seeking fellowship with the people of God, you do engage to keep covenant with them, and with Him, in the faithful and diligent observance of all the commandments and ordinances of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Do you thus believe and promise?

[Here each shall audibly answer:]

I do.

[Here baptism is administered.]

You have now witnessed a good confession. Solemn as the transaction is in its nature, precious in its privileges, and impressive in its obligations, you may, nevertheless, with confidence in the strength of Divine grace, thus unalterably commit yourselves to Him whom you have believed. Be persuaded, therefore, that He is able to keep that which you have committed unto Him against that day.

III.—OF MEMBERS RECEIVED BY CERTIFICATE.

The following persons have presented letters of dismissal and recommendation to this Church, which have been accepted by the Session. They will rise in their places as their names are called.

[And be addressed as follows:]

DEARLY BELOVED:—Having heretofore made a public profession of your faith, and having been commended to us by the respective churches of which you were members, you do now jointly covenant with this Church that you will walk in its order and submit to its discipline, seek its peace and welfare, and treat its members with that tenderness and fidelity which becomes the disciples of Christ, and brethren of the same household.

IV.—WELCOME BY THE CHURCH.

[Here the members of this Church are to rise.]

We, the officers and members of this Church, earnestly welcome you to our communion, to share with us the labors and privileges, the trials and the rewards, of Christian discipleship.

Let us together “confess that we are pilgrims on the earth,” and “declare plainly that we seek a country”; “looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.”

“We are persuaded of you things that accompany salvation.” Living and dying may you be the Lord’s; and at last, may you and we, faithful unto death, and more than conquerors through Him that loved us, stand holy and un-reprovable in His sight, to the praise of the glory of His grace, being entered into that blessed heavenly fellowship, where our communion shall be forever perfect and our joy forever full.

“The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.”

“And unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.”

BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.

“Infants descending from their parents, either both or but one of them professing faith in Christ, and obedience to Him, are, in that respect, within the covenant, and are to be baptized.”

“Baptism is not to be unnecessarily delayed; nor to be administered by any private person.”

“It is usually to be administered in the church, in the presence of the congregation.”

FORM OF BAPTISMAL SERVICE.

[Before baptism, parents presenting their children may be addressed as follows:]

BELOVED IN THE LORD:—In thus presenting your children for baptism, you renew your profession of faith in Jesus Christ, as Redeemer and King, and your adoption of His Word as the law of your household.

You remember with grateful love the comforting words of the Lord, who took the little children in His arms, and put His hands on them and blessed them, declaring that of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Humbly believing that you are Christ's, and therefore Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise, and on this Scriptural ground believing that the God of Abraham will be your God and the God of your children after you, you do here, in this solemn and precious rite, publicly express that faith of your hearts, in which you do now give these children to God, trusting them to that covenant-keeping One who has said: “I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed and my blessing upon thine offspring.”

And you do now promise to pray with and for these children, to diligently instruct them in the doctrines and duties of the Christian religion, and to do what in you lies to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord,

[Here the rite of baptism will be administered, followed by prayer.]

Our Members in Heaven.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself: that where I am, there ye may be also.—JOHN, xiv, 1-4.

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am: that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.—JOHN, xvii, 24.

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal: but the things which are not seen are eternal.—2 Cor. iv, 17-18.

And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write. Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours: and their works do follow them.—Rev. xiv, 13.
